VOL. 14, NUMBER 93 MONESSEN, PA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30 1915 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

Once we thought work was a curse; then it came to us that it was a necsary evil; and yesterday the truth dawned upon us that it is a blessed privilege.—Hubbard.

Abolish fear and every man and woman is an orator or artist. The criminal and the untruthful person are obsessed by fear until the genial current of their life is turned awry.

Fatal Shooting Result Of Strange Dispute

When Pietro Tammorello entered Gaspiero Bruno's room at the Bruno home shortly after nine o'clock this morning to shave, a quarrel started and the two combatants left the house to fight it out in the alley. Tammorella drew a gun and before Bruno had time to turn around, shot him in the back, the bullet piercing his stomach, inflicting a wound that caused his death shortly afterwards.

According to reports Bruno, the son of Gasper Bruno, residing in the alley between Schoonmaker and Donner between Fifth and Sixth street, was not feeling well this morning and remained home from work. Tammorello arising, thought he would shave, and entered Bruno's room to secure a razor, etc. The young man objected to him occuping so many rooms and the trouble started.

They then went to the alley and almost in front of the house the shooting took place. There were no witnesses to the affair and when the shot rang out, Bruno fell to the ground mortally wounded, while his assailant fled up the alley towards Sixth street hill and made his escape.

Bruno was taken to the Monessen-Charleroi hospital, but his death occurred shortly after he was admitted to the institution. The dead man is 21 years of age and is the son of Gaspero Bruno, who makes a living by peddling fish. Pietro Tammorello, who is charged with the shooting, is 37 years of age and has only been a resident of this city a short time.

Almost Forgotten

It seems to be a funny thing, yet it is true after all the advertising we have done for this week's program, we thought that there was nothing left out, but what a disappointment.

"Joe Martin Turns Them Loose."—The greatest comedy thriller ever produced was not mentioned in our advertising of this week. Imagine for a minute the Barnum and Bailey circus to be turned loose in and around our business treets, Schoonmaker avenue and Donner avenue and in the houses. Think for a second and watch lions, tigers, monkeys, wolfs, elephants, foxes and all kinds of wild animals running in all directions, chasing men, women and children. Oh my, I would rather be out of that game. It is impossible for me to explain to our patrons what kind of feelings or thoughts they might have if they ever would be chased by wild animals. It is a scream from start to finish. Today at the Olympic.

In addition, the greatest, sweetest, most complete picture ever on any screen, Ella Hall in "Jewel" today. -1t

Attempts Suicide

Word was received here yesterday that John H. Gregg, a farmer residing on a farm near Roscoe, attempted suicide by shooting himself with a revolver. He aimed at his heart but the bullet went wild and struck the seventh rib, which probably saved his life. No cause is given for the act other than he had made arrangements to sell the farm on which he had lived for the past thirty years and it is thought that he grew despondent.

Labor Shortage in County

Westmoreland county is experiencing a labor shortage for the first time in years. It is due to Senator Penrose's re-election. The P. R. R. and B. & O. railroads have issued calls to all men formerly in their employ who were furloughed in the dull business period, to return to work. Brakemen and firemen can have their old jobs back and a guarantee of full time for the next six months.

Westmoreland's coal mines are working full capacity, though somewhat hindered by the lack of labor.

The great manufacturing plants are working night and day shifts. They are advertising for men, skilled and unskilled.

Ella Hall in "Jewell" a five reel screen version by Lois Weber of Clara Louise Burman's novel—produced by the Smalleys. Golden haired Ella Hall, the darling of the films, the dearest litle girl that God ever made, as some of her admirers have named her—the sweetest little flower that ever bloomed unsullied in this hard matter-of-fact world—plays the role of a blue eyed child in "Jewell"—one Broadway Universal feature. "Jewel" is Ella Hall, and Ella Hall is "Jewell." She has the help of Lois Weber and Phillips Smalley, producer of "Scandal" and other famous productions.

TAKE NOTICE—This is our final call. You will miss the greatest opportunity of your life if you miss seeing the Jewel of Jewels, Ella Hall. If you miss it, blame yourself. Admission 5c and 10c. Think of it. Today at the Olympic. 1t

Institute New Lodge

Next Sunday the Monongahela Valley Lodge No. 776 Independent Order B'nai B'rith will be instituted in this city. The exercises will take place in the Olympic hall beginning promptly at 2 p. m., and the work will be in charge of the Pittsburgh lodge.

The local lodge was formed only a short time ago and has twenty four charter members. Officers were elected at a meeting held last Sunday. The B'nai B'rith is one of the strongest Jewish orders in the world. There are no benefits connected with the organization, which is purely charitable, helping needy members. At the present time they are lending valuable assistance to Jewish sufferers of the great war. The meeting Sunday will bring some of the highest officers of the organization to this city, and the meeting will be one of the big events of the year for the Jewish people of this community.

Greeks Called

Within the week it is expected that hundreds of Greek residents of this city will leave to join their native country in the great European war. Orders have been received here by all able bodied citizens of Greese to report to their counsel in Philadelphia within six days. They will be given their passports and free transportation to their native country and will leave at once.

The Greeks will join the allies, fighting with Servia against the Bulgarians. Local Greeks who have served in the recent war between the Turks, Bulgarians and their native country are of the opinion that should the British and French be unsuccessful in their efforts to break through the German lines at Loos, they will attempt to enter Austria through Greece. This country is void of mountains that could be used as fortifications and would be accessible for food stuffs and amunitions by way of the Mediterranean sea.

The Elco Sterlings are again in the field for the championship of western Pennsylvania. (145 pounds actual weight class.) Having two victories already to start with, defeating Fayette City and Clairton A. A., both to the tune of 28 to 0. Would like to arrange games with Belle Vernon, Monongahela, Donora, Ellsworth, Monessen, McKeesport or any other teams in this class. For games write D. L. Open Season Friday

The Monessen High school football team will play the first game of this season's schedule on Friday afternoon, when they meet the West Newton team at 4 o'clock on the Page grounds.

The coaches, White, Imler and Townsend have been working hard to round the team into shape. Although there is no second team, a lively scrimmage has been frequent.

At the outset of the training season, it was feared that last spring's graduation had taken the best material but as the season progressed, the local team developed some excellent men. With McQuaide as center, Imler and Hess as tackles, and with Williams, Frazier and Preston in the backfield, the outlook is very optomistic.

One end is well taken care of by Captain Newhouse, while the other end will be efficiently taken care of by Boag or Ellar.

McKinley and Johnston as half backs are playing in old time style. McKinley is equal to the best "back field" man playing High school football, and Johnston's speed makes him a valuable asset to the team.

While none of the players have been assigned definite places on the team, the battle royal is between men trying out for guards. Savo, Ingram, Wild, Reed, Lewis and Ruse are contesting for the privilege of starting Friday's game. The coaches are still undecided in this matter.

Among others trying out for positions on the team are Lightfot, Warman, Filander, Griffith, Skurky and Smith.

The complete schedule for the season is as follows:

Oct. 1.——West Newton here.
Oct. 8—Turtle Creek there.
Oct. 16—Jeannette—there.
Oct. 23—Donora here.
Oct. 29—McKeesport there.
Nov. 5—Monongahela there.
Nov. 12—Braddock here.
Nov. 19—Charleroi there.
Nov. 26—Alumni here.

Roads Are Now Ready For Governor's Party

The roads from Monessen to Greensburg were never better. The state highway has recently been put in tip top shape. But there is a reason for this.

The reason is that Gov. Martin G. Brumbaugh is about to pass through this way in an automobile with a party of so-called road experts, and the roads have been shaped up especially for this seance.

Of course after this party passes over the roads, they will remain good, and the farmers and the general traveling public can have the use of them as long as they remain good, but whether any repairs will be made before this same governor or some other governor is ready to make a trip, remains to be seen.

The farmers and all others have traveled over these roads in their rough condition without being able to get relief. The taxpayers could get nothing done, but when the governor announced that he was ready to make a trip through the country to view the fine scenery, then it became necessary to turn the state highway department loose and spare no expense in order to make the ride as nice and comfortable as possible for the state's chief executive. The welfare of the taxpayers is of little importance when it becomes necessary to travel through the district of the members of the legislature to find out a few things. The steam roller will possibly be much in evidence during this trip.

But where is the justice of it all? Where does the interest of the dear people come in? Is the trip being made at the expense of the taxpayers? What is the object? Was it necesary to fix up the whole road just for the governor to pass along? Is the highway department to pay more attention to the roads over which the governor is to travel than others? There are a lot of questions that might be asked on behalf of the people, and there are a lot of people living in sections that the governor knows not of, who need roads to get their produce to market. Will such roads receive the same attention as those over which the governor travels?

The trip is scheduled for the fifth day of October and presumably the people along the road are expected to decorate their homes lavishly to show their patriotism and their loyalty to the administration which has so eloquently declared that it will reach back into the home districts to defeat the members of the legislature who refused to vote "right" on all questions. So much for the coming of our chief executive.

Webster Man Dead

John McMahon, aged 66 years, died yesterday afternoon at his home in Webster, following a two weeks' illness of pneumonia. Funeral services will be held Saturday at his late home with interment in the Monongahela cemetery.

The deceased has been a resident of Webster for a number of years and for a long time followed the carpenter trade. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Frank of Webster and William of Monongahela. A brother Robert of Monongahela and two sisters, Mrs. Michael Hester of McKeesport and Mrs. Nancy Rue of Sunnyside, also survive.

Town Spirit and Business

This has been a good season for business men's outings, picnics, field days and other summer sport. And they have served a good purpose. Business harmony is an absolute necessity to a community. It brings a closer co-operation to business organizations. Boards of Trade are worthless if they are allowed to become hot beds of petty jealousies, bickerings and cut-throat methods between the members. A great many business organizations also fail because a few officers are allowed to do all the work, and the remainder of the members stand aside and criticise, fail to attend meetings and put up an almost insurmountable bar to closer unity. Here steps in the social side. The picnic, the summer outing, the field day, when all members of the business Men's Association close shop and get together to play cannot but result in harmony and a better understanding. Stiffness and formality can't last long in the baseball game between the fat men and the slim ones. The sorest grouch in the association is apt to become almost human under the influences of the sack and potato races, while the hatched-faced, thin-lipped cashier who has a reputation of having smiled back in '96 is more apt to thaw under the stories and the luncheon under the trees than he is if he remains secluded in his money cage. These get-together meetings are far-reaching. Bill Jones who has always hated his competitor, will go back to town laughing at the story the hated one told, and, like as not, will get into the habit of dropping into his store to hear more of those stories, and incidentally, talk over business matters with him. Town spirit and good business grow out of pleaant relations.

Every Man's World

The corporations, the liquor interest and the multimillionaires are not the owners of the earth, despite the shout ings of the yellow press. The world belongs to the thrifty man. We all realize that no talent, no circumstances, no opportunities will make a man a success in life without the virtue of thrift, hence the movement for a national Thrift Day is receiving encouragement. It is proposed by the International Congress for Thrift that the president and the governors of the states designate a day, the Sunday before Labor Day, as Thrift Day. The iden is a worthy one, and the labor organizations of the country are supporting it. The constant application of thrift will make the world a better place to live in. There will be fewer inmates of charitable institutions, fewer applicants for alms, less poverty and more happiness. It is proposed to establish state as well as national headquarters for the association, and an active campaign undertaken for educating the easy going and thoughtless.

GIRL SUES DISTILLERY

Hester May Duvall of Brownsville, yestrday filed a suit for $10,000 damages against the Thompson Distilling company, whose plant is in West Brownsville. She claims this sum by reason of personal injuries received by her while she was employed as a bottler of whiskey for the defendant company. Her injuries were received when a ladder, on which she had climbed up to close a window, slipped on the floor, by reason of the whiskey that had been spilled.

The plaintiff sets forth that it was her duty each night at the close of the day's work, to see that a certain window was closed and again opened in the morning. She says this window was about five and a half or six feet above the floor and a ladder was furnished her to reach it. She avers the ladder rested on the wall near the window and on the floor, but that no cleats were used to prevent its slipping. She says that in moving the bottled whiskey about on trucks, bottles were frequently broken and the whiskey spilled on the floor. She alleges that the oil in the whiskey and other ingredients caused the floor to be very slippery, but this danger, she says, was unknown to her. The date on which she was hurt was November 19, 1914.

If you don't do anything else tomorrow, have your wife bring you down to see these new Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets before they are all gone.

—Hoosier Beauty is the National Step Saver—the finest and most complete kitchen cabinet ever built—now improved in a dozen ways.

The women who purchased Hoosier Beauties this week have in their homes a labor-saving machine of which they will be as proud in twenty years as they are today—at a price so low that any woman, no matter what her income, can afford it.

Are You like this Man?

Night after night he had gone home and found his wife tired, cross—worn out—yet, after supper while he read the paper, she was in the kitchen toiling over the dishes. He decided he wasn't fair. A dollar was pretty small to stack against his wife's health and the happiness of his home.

"Here's My Dollar"

he said. .."Send out one of them Hoosier Cabinets everybody's buying this week"..We did, and now he and his wife both are happy.

Now men! How about your wife? Is she getting a fair deal from you? And women, are you fair to your family when you make a drudge out of yourself instead of a good wife, mother and companion?

No woman has a right to drudge along with old fashioned, out of date equipment when the remarkable convenience of a Hoosier Cabinet is now brought to her at a price within the reach of any income.

This is "HOOSIER BEAUTY"
The National Step Saver

We have had a wonderful sale this week. These new Hoosiers have been the talk of the town. The sale may close tomorrow. It ends when this small lot is gone. While they last, a single dollar puts any Hoosier in your home, and the rest is only a dollar a week for a few weeks. If the Hoosier Beauty isn't exactly what you want, you can have

AT $9 LESS THAN STANDARD PRICES

THE NEW HOOSIER WONDER

This cabinet has pure aluminum table; big roomy white enamel cupboards uncluttered with cubby holes or partitions. It is by long odds the lowest priced high-grade kitchen cabinet ever sold.

Or perhaps you would like

THE NEW HOOSIER SPECIAL

We have only one or two left. This cabinet is midway between the Hoosier Wonder and the Hoosier Beauty in convenience, and is equal to the Hoosier Beauty in size.

Don't fail to compare this with the popular

NEW "ROLL DOOR HOOSIER"

For this is the only kitchen cabinet with roll doors that are removable and sanitary. Note particularly the absence of cubby holes and partitions that catch dirt or dust.

And finally, there is

THE NEW "HOOSIER DE LUXE"

The famous Hoosier Beauty white enameled inside and out—a kitchen cabinet of remarkable beauty.

Everyone of these cabinets will be sold, while they last, this week at introductory prices, far below the standard prices of kitchen cabinets in their class.

This may be our last announcement. Come early tomorrow and pick your choice before it is too late.

"RULE G"

There has just been completed in the region around San Francisco Bay a motion picture which for several interesting reasons may prove to be the most remarkable of its kind. The Blazon Film company has succeded, apparently, in doing something never done before—in depicting railroad life, train operation and train accidents as they actually are "Rule G" is the name of the photo drama made in five reels. Several hundred railroad workers are concerned in one way and another, with the production of the picture.—Railway Employees' Magazine.

This Monessen citizen testified long ago.

Spots often floated before my eyes. I finally procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Hirsch Drug Co., and began taking them. I improved from the first and was soon cured." NEW NECKWEAR

Different and Prettier Than Ever

To tell you what is new is difficult for there are so many ideas. Perhaps the leading innovations are some new variations of the chemisette, with novel collar effects. Most of the new collars are high in the back and low in the front, exposing the throat with the same naive purpose that the pretty low shoes have in exposing dainty ankles.,We also show in a number of styles the large flat collars, plain and with a touch of some dainty coloring that greatly adds to their attractiveness. We always show a complete line of handbags and purses. From the best they can be bought for 50c up to $8.00. We realize that the majority of people want the popular priced articles and that is where we are specializing. We show an extra large assortment of bags this fall for $1.00. Genuine leather.
